

Name: _____

Date: _____

Biomedical Careers

Across

2. a person who is specially trained and certified to administer basic emergency services to victims of trauma or acute illness before and during transportation to a hospital or other healthcare facility.
6. a person who studies or is an expert in the branch of medicine which deals with the incidence, distribution, and possible control of diseases.
8. a doctor who practices anesthesia, the use of gasses or injections to numb pain or put a patient to sleep
11. a medical practitioner specializing in children and their diseases.
12. a medical practitioner qualified to practice surgery.
14. a person who studies or is an expert in nutrition.

15. a nurse or other health worker trained in drawing venous blood for testing or donation.

16. a person licensed to prepare and dispense drugs and medicines.

17. a person qualified to treat the diseases and conditions that affect the teeth and gums, especially the repair and extraction of teeth and the insertion of artificial ones.

18. a specialist or expert in genetics.

Down

1. a medical researcher or scientist who studies viruses and the diseases caused by them.

3. a registered nurse who has received special training for diagnosing and treating routine or minor ailments. Abbreviated NP.

4. a researcher who studies the chemistry of living matter.

5. a person who uses X-rays or other high-energy radiation, especially a doctor specializing in radiology.

7. movement experts who improve quality of life through prescribed exercise, hands-on care, and patient education; they help injured or ill people improve movement and manage pain.

9. a surgeon specializing in surgery on the nervous system, especially the brain and spinal cord.

10. a scientist who studies the causes and effects of diseases

13. healthcare professionals who provide primary vision care ranging from sight testing and correction to the diagnosis, treatment, and management of vision changes.