

Biomes By: Andrea Rivera

Across

- 6. Treeless arctic or alpine biome characterized by cold, harsh winters, a short growing season, and potential for frost any month of the year
- 8. a large naturally occurring community of flora and fauna occupying a major habitat
- 9. Evergreen trees that can stand the cold temperatures
- 10. Does not contain any saltwater and can be rivers, lakes, streams, ponds, and wetlands

11. An arid region with little or no precipitation

12. A group of organisms or populations living and interacting with one another in a particular environment

13. the surroundings or conditions in which a person, animal, or plant lives or operates.

Down

1. the number of organisms of the same species that live in a particular geographic area at the same time

2. A grassland region maintained by seasonal drought, occasional fires, and grazing by large mammals

3. Many types of deciduous trees like oaks, birches, and maples

4. Biome with the largest diversity of animal and plant life

5. A region of grassland with scattered trees and seasonal rain

7. an individual animal, plant, or single-celled life form.