

Name: _____

Date: _____

Biomes

Across

3. a tropical woodland with a high annual rainfall and has broad leaf trees that can form a canopy

10. is anything that can affect the organism and includes living and nonliving parts

11. a group of individuals that belong to the same species and live in the same area

12. a dry, barren area of land, especially, one covered with sand, that is characteristically desolate, waterless, and without much vegetation

13. a sometimes swampy coniferous forest of high northern latitudes, especially that between the tundra and steppes of Siberia and North America

14. a large open area of country covered with grass, especially one used for grazing

15. a community of organisms living together along with the nonliving parts of the environment

Down

1. the nonliving parts of an ecosystem

2. a community of plants and animals that have common characteristics for the environment they exist in

4. a characteristic that helps an organism live and reproduce in a particular environment

5. temperate broad leaf forest with leaves that fall off in the winter and return yearly. Has four seasons

6. a group of populations that interact with each other in a particular area

7. a vast, flat, treeless Arctic region of Europe, Asia, and North America in which the subsoil is permanently frozen

8. the part of earth where living things live

9. the living organisms in an ecosystem