

Name: _____

Date: _____

Blast From The Past Crossword Puzzle

Across

1. France allies with Indians to fight British soldiers and colonial militia over land in North America.
6. The name of the passage that brought African slaves across the Atlantic to America
10. A set of harsh laws passed on the colonies in response to the Boston Tea Party.
15. Officially ends French and Indian War gave all land east of the Mississippi river to Britain
17. The military camp of the Continental army.
20. Called the redcoats, led by Charles Cornwallis
22. The idea of self-government
23. Colonists who fought for independence.
25. This was the first English colony in North America
26. A short pamphlet that influenced colonist to join the fight and help to unify the colonist.

27. Lived in the New England colonies and they were a strictly religion colony.
28. Primary author of the declaration of independence
29. The british tended to leave the colonists alone as long as the colonists remained loyal and provided raw materials.
30. This colony was named after William Penn, and it was a safe place for Quakers.

Down

2. This is when a country wants more exports than imports.
3. British law that required clonists to pay tax for most paper goods.
4. Dumping thousands of dollars of tea in the Boston Harbor.
5. Called the continental army,led by George Washington
7. The first elected legislature body in the colonies.
8. EUrope sent finished goods to Africa, then Africa sent slaves to the colonies, and finally the colonies exported raw materials to Africa. What trade is this?

9. A colonial victory that convinced the french that the Americans could win
11. British tax on tea.
12. Five men joined to create the declaration.
13. Settle the colony of Pennsylvania and were known for their religious tolerance.
14. Law passed by Britain to prohibited colonial settlement west of the Appalachian Mountains
16. These were people who agreed to work for a set amount of years(usually 7) in return for free passage into the new world and or shelter.
18. Laws passed by Britain that made colonies only trade with New England in order to eliminate competitive trading.
19. The strictest of religious groups and were in tolerant of other ideas and relihoins.
21. A religious revival that spread across the colonies in the 1730s
24. Colonists who remained loyal to Great Britain throughout the war