

Bold Actions and Beyond

Across

- 4. When a character speaks to another character, it is called _____.
- 7. After an introductory word or phrase a _____ is needed
- 9. We know no characters' thought; however, we make educated guesses.
- 12. What happens just before the conflict is resolved.
- 13. Using like or as to compare something is called what?
- 14. When a character uses words that are thought or spoken to themselves are called?

- 16. Things in a story that push the plot toward its conclusion.
- 20. Person, Place, or Thing
- 21. Used to show possession.
- 22. Where the story is wrapped up.

Down

- 1. Where we learn the setting, characters, and conflict of a story.
- 2. Who is in a story.
- 3. Used to describe a person, place, or thing.
- 5. A word used to describe an action word in a sentence.
- 6. His, Hers, Theirs, and Ours

- 8. When another person's words are used in a story, these punctuations are needed.
- 10. Things that move the plot forward to its end are called.
- 11. The problem that is faced in a story.
- 15. We use this acronym before we begin writing an essay.
- 17. What we learn from a story.
- 18. We know all characters' thoughts.
- 19. Where a story takes place.