

Book 105

Across

3. The four basic forms are solid, graduated, increase-layered and:
7. Which type of form is sometimes referred to as a one-length or blunt cut?
8. The hair below the crest is known as the:
13. The hair above the crest is known as the:
14. The widest area around the head is known as the:
16. When using electric clippers, the attachment that allows the hair to be cut at the same length is the:
17. The area below the occipital is referred to as the:

19. The movable blade of the shears is controlled by the:

20. A trimmer, also known as an edger, is a tool used to:

Down

1. What is meant by unactivated texture?
2. The area all around the hairline is referred to as the:
4. The most natural looking result of the design line is achieved when cutting the hair in which of the following head positions?
5. Lines that subdivide sections of hair in order to separate, distribute and control the hair while cutting are called:

6. The surface appearance of hair is referred to as:

9. What type of distribution results in a 90° angle from its base parting?

10. When the hair is combed out of natural distribution in any direction except perpendicular to its parting is known as:

11. The foundation for all other hair services is:

12. The protruding bone below the crest area at the back of the head is the:

15. The apex refers to what part of the head?

18. What product adds gloss and sheen to dry hair and creates texture separation?