

Name: _____ Date: _____ Period: _____

Both, Two

Across

2. Occurring twice a year
 4. A contest with deadly weapons arranged between two people in order to settle a point of honor
 11. open to more than one
 14. having lenses each with two parts with different focal lengths
 15. Performance by two people
 17. having mixed feelings or contradictory ideas about something or someone

18. A person who rides a bicycle for sport

19. The action of duplicating something

20. the two-hundredth anniversary of a significant event

Down

1. A house divided into two parts
 3. vehicle composed of two wheels
 5. Exactly like something else

6. Using left and right hands equally

7. an optical instrument with a lens for each eye

8. The quality or condition of being dual

9. Consisting of two parts, elements, or aspects

10. Deceitfulness

12. Speaking two languages fluently

13. A pair of people or things

16. The quality of being open to more than one interpretation