

Business Crossword Puzzle

Across

3. An interview in which your employer asks questions about how you liked your work and what improvements might be made

10. What's money used to start up a new small business or help a business expand during a growth period?

11. A situation in which the business is discontinued with a loss to at least one creditor

15. Someone who has special training in talking with job applicants and hiring new employees.

16. A financial gain, especially the difference between the amount earned and the amount spent in buying, operating, or producing something.

17. What's the name for a government funded organization that helps small business owners borrow money as well as manage their more more efficiently?

18. An organization in which members can provide assistance in special areas of operation such as finance, accounting, and marketing.

20. A document used by an employer that asks for information related to employment

22. Who is someone that takes a risk in starting a business to earn a profit?

23. The process of starting, organizing, managing, and assuming the responsibility for a business

24. an occupation undertaken for a significant period of a person's life and with opportunities for progress.

25. A society in which all property is publicly owned and each person works and is paid according to their abilities and needs.

Down

1. A two-way conversation in which the interviewer learns about you and you learn about the position and the company.

2. an economic system and an ideology based on private ownership of the means of production and their operation for profit.

4. A business that has been in operation for less than three years and has no employees other than the owner.

5. A sales letter about an applicant written for the purpose of getting a personal interview.

6. An investment in which you pay another business for the right to use its business model and products.

7. Usually has the owner as manager and employs fewer than 500 people.

8. People who can give a report about your character, your education, and your work habits.

9. A test that measures how well a job applicant can perform certain job tasks.

12. A summary of important job-related information about yourself

13. Programs offered in cooperation with colleges and universities to provide management counselling.

14. What's a person or business that's owed money?

19. What's a situation in which a business does not have enough money to pay it's creditors even after selling equipment and other resources?

21. The activity, set of institutions, and processes for creating, communicating, delivering, and exchanging offerings that have value for customers, clients, partners, and society at large.