

Name: _____

Business Law

Across

- 2. A person who accepts an offer
- 4. A term stated either orally or in writing by one of the parties making the contract
- 6. A statement that is part of the contract
- 9. Withdrawal
- 11. A clause which limits liability of one party to a certain sum
- 15. A person who makes an offer
- 16. A term in a contract which is not expressly agreed by the parties to the contract
- 18. Minor terms of a contract which are incidental to the main purpose of the contract

- 19. A promise by one party to give, do or refrain from doing something in return for similar by the other party

- 20. Fundamental terms that go to the root of the contract

Down

- 1. The name given to the person bringing an appeal against a decision of a lower court
- 3. A pre-contractual statement that induces the making of the contract.
- 5. A contract that is binding on one party but the other party has the option to have it set aside. Until set aside the contract has full legal effect

- 7. A document of proposed law to be discussed by Parliament which if passed is called an Act

- 8. A contract where the terms are set out on a standard written document

- 10. Goods and services appropriate to a person's social standing and required at the time

- 12. A clause which excludes the liability of one party

- 13. Generally means law developed by judges through decisions in courts as opposed to laws created by Parliament

- 14. A contract that has no legal effect

- 17. To authorise or approve an agreement after it has been made.