

Name: _____

Business Law Chapter 3 Exam

- | | |
|--|----------------------|
| 1. A private wrong committed by one person against another. | A. Battery |
| 2. A person who commits a tort. | B. Tort |
| 3. Actions that deliberately hurt, embarrass, or scare people. | C. Proximate Cause |
| 4. A tort that results when one person carelessly injures another. | D. Intentional Torts |
| 5. Exists when the link between the negligent conduct and the injury is strong enough to be recognized by the law. | E. Negligence |
| 6. A legal doctrine that says that some activities are so dangerous that liability will always follow any injury that results from those injuries. | F. Foreseeable |
| 7. Determines if proximate case exists. | G. Confidential |
| 8. When an invasion of privacy exists of personal records | H. Tortfeasor |
| 9. Unlawful and unwanted touching of another person. | I. Strict Liability |
| 10. A treat to harm another, even if no harm is done. | J. Compensate |
| 11. The law intends to reward the victim for injuries. | K. Assault |