

Business Law - Chapter 14

Across

2. declares that, at the very least, every society follows a single ethical principle

8. A _____ is a public wrong that is committed by one person against another person, resulting in injury to the health, property, reputation, or business dealings of the innocent person.

9. The legal system works because of its _____ and the ideal of justice.

10. In mock trials, learners are taught how to use legal research, legal thinking, and _____.

Down

1. The law operates in many venues: in the legislature, in the streets and

3. The American adversarial process is aimed at

4. A business law course will introduce the study of the law by _____, looking at the purposes of the law, and then distinguishing the law from ethics.

5. Social media networking tools that can be used in the classroom to enhance the educational process include _____, instant messaging, and texting

6. A _____ is a legally binding agreement between parties.

7. A person who commits a tort is known as a _____ and the victim is known as the innocent party.