

Business Law: Crimes

- |                                                                                                                               |                |
|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|----------------|
| 1. A crime for which the punishment is less than one year in prison and the possibility of a fine is a _____.                 | A. mental      |
| 2. the taking of money or goods of value from a person against their will, by force or fear                                   | B. crime       |
| 3. Forcible restraint or restriction is called                                                                                | C. felony      |
| 4. stealing goods from a store is called                                                                                      | D. misdemeanor |
| 5. A tort is a _____wrong for which the court will give a remedy                                                              | E. duress      |
| 6. an act, committed or omitted, in violation of a public law                                                                 | F. shoplifting |
| 7. Arson is the malicious or fraudulent _____ of property                                                                     | G. civil       |
| 8. The difference between a felony and a misdemeanor is that a _____is an offense punishable by more than one year in prison. | H. forgery     |
| 9. Embezzlement is the deprivation of another's property through breach of a relationship of                                  | I. burglary    |
| 10. the false making or altering of a writing without permission                                                              | J. burning     |
| 11. The breaking and entering of a structure with intent to commit a felony is called _____.                                  | K. trust       |
| 12. "Mens re" means the _____ element required for a crime.                                                                   | L. robbery     |