

Business Words

Across

6. 1 owner, one person responsible for all issues of the business.

9. 2 or more people that start a business - less risk more ideas and collaboration however can disagree.

11. The ability to agree on the transfer of goods between two or more people

12. the internal and external factors that will effect a business and its staff.

13. The cycle that a business will go through from the start up to post maturity.

14. Where the business reaches stable profits and not much growth, the company may need to look at designing new products.

15. a business that will operate out of a shopping centre or physical building, preferred by older people and for products where customers want to try before they buy.

Down

1. The use of natural resources to create raw materials - mining, agriculture, livestock/animals.

2. The first phase in the business cycle where the company is designing the product and collecting money from investors.

3. when the business expands its business to many stores or products. Many products, high staff.

4. The external factors of the a business that they have not control over such as the economy, political, natural environment.

5. providing a good or service to a customer - transportation, customer service, teaching, any physical or online store selling the final product.

7. The business is able to change their product or business using technology and grow again.

8. The ability to agree on the transfer of goods between two or more people.

10. The fourth stage where the business starts to lose profits and needs to find ways to grow their business again.