

C6L2

Across

- 8. Genetic change in a population over time.
- 9. Is a record of all known fossils and the place in time.
- 10. The study of similarities and differences in the physical structures of living things.

Down

- 1. A diagram that shows evolutionary relationships.

2. Parts that look similar, but are passed down from different ancestors.

3. Common Ancestors have similar body structure and development.

4. Parts that have no function in their present day.

5. Parts of organisms that are similar in origin and structure.

6. The study of the growth and development of offspring from fertilization to birth.

7. The more similar DNA patterns the more closely related the species.