

CC Processing and Accounting Basics

Across

3. The most highly used accounting software in the world.

7. The institution that send money on behalf of the customer.

8. The interface you use to submit a credit card payment on behalf of a customer.

10. A seller of goods.

12. Visa or MasterCard.

13. Any organization that sells a software to businesses for various uses.

Down

1. A company that provides access to a gateway for the merchant.

2. Make (one account) consistent with another.

4. A sales org that will sell various types of services and products like merchant processing.

5. Any act of purchasing a good or service that is logged in a virtual terminal.

6. The Tool used to connect a payer's info to the payee's.

9. A list of services or goods rendered by a merchant with an amount due by the customer.

11. The set of rules that provide a common way to keep books and analyze financials.