

CHAPTER 4 KEY TERMS

Across

2. A person with very special talents who looks beyond present practices and products and creates a business.
 4. A skilled worker in a service.
 9. A skilled worker in a laboratory or product-testing facility.
 11. A device used to split and separate materials and to grip parts.
 13. One person who owns a business or an operation.
 15. To entirely use up.
 16. The support on a lever on which the lever arm rest and turns.
 17. A simple machine that multiplies the force applied to it.
 19. A raw, unorganized fact or figure.

20. An organic material that has a life cycle and can be regenerated.

21. A nonmanagerial worker who carries out such tasks as keeping financial records etc.

22. A lever in which the fulcrum is between the load and the effort.

Down

1. Capable of being used up, but replaced with the normal life cycle of the energy source.
 3. A person who processes materials, builds structures, operates, transportation vehicles.
 5. A simple machine that increases the amount of movement applied to the work at hand.

6. A material that does not come from living organisms.

7. A material that comes from a living organism.

8. A combination of natural and synthetic used to create items with other desirable properties.

10. A legal entity people form to own an operation.

12. an inclined plane wrapped around a shaft.

14. An application of the principle that it is easier to move up a slope than a vertical surface.

18. An application of the principle that it is easier to move up a slope than a vertical surface.