

Name: _____

Date: _____

CHAPTER 58: THE PATIENT WITH A SEIZURE DISORDER

Across

3. Isolated or repetitive contractions of muscles
5. A type of seizure affecting the entire brain at the same time
8. Failure of muscular coordination
13. Generalized or major seizure
14. Typical medicine used for seizures
16. Impairment of function of digestion
19. Brief impairment of consciousness
20. Symptomatic
21. Impulses move an electromagnetic pen recording brain waves
22. Genetic predisposition to seizures or to other neurological abnormalities which seizure is a symptom.

Down

1. Typical medicine for seizures
2. Resulting from stroke/seizure
4. Overgrowth occurs in 25%-50% of persons using phenytoin for treatment
6. Seizure lasting from 5 minutes to 30 minutes
7. Group of functional disorders characterized by recurrent seizures
9. A drug given for status epilepticus
10. Patient appears stiff
11. Seizures that can arise during many neurologic and nonneurologic medical conditions
12. A disorder for which the cause is hidden or occult.
15. Typical medicine used for seizures
17. Idiopathic seizure
18. Disorder where cause is occult
23. Typical medicine used for seizures
24. Warning sign
25. Abnormal Hairiness