

Name: _____ Date: _____ Period: _____

CHORDATES CROSSWORD

Across

5. What class do marsupials belong too

9. Utilize a placenta between the uterus and embryo which results in young being born at a much more advanced stage

10. This class includes the shark and skates

13. Have a backbone as their structural axis

14. Adapted to flight through the development of hallow bones, large muscles and feathers

15. Amphi means

16. Have three primary characteristics chordates have, but do NOT have a backbone

Down

1. Some of these skip the metamorphic stage and the young are born as immature adults

2. Dry skin with protective scales and are believed to have evolved during a drier climate in Earth's history

3. include frogs, toad and salamanders and appear to live two lives as they live in the water during the early stages and on land as adults

4. These are cold blooded jawless fish and although their ancestors had bony skeletons, modern agnaths have a cartilaginous skeleton.

6. Lay their eggs with shells but nurse their young after hatchin

7. are characterized by four limbs, moist skin, and sensitive inner ear structures. Evolved from fish 400 WHAT years ago?

8. Feed by allowing water to pass into their pharynx where food particles are trapped

11. What class has cold blooded fish have bony skeletons and can be found in salt or fresh water environments.

12. Small marine chordates that are filter feeder of plankton