Name:	Date:	Period:
-------	-------	---------

CHP 14 Section 1

Across

- 3. A condition that is uniquely hard to find in a barter economy
- 7. Money in the form of coins made from silver and gold
- 8. funds that can be accessed by writing a check, without needing prior approval
- 9. a function of money that allows its purchasing power to be saved until needed

10. goods used as currency (ex. tobacco in colonial Virginia)

Down

- 1. Something accepted by all parties as payment for goods and services
- 2. the Spanish Peso and Austrian taler led to the creation of this money
- 4. M1 and M2 are defined by money's
- 5. A common measurement of worth that most individuals understand
- 6. Money whose value comes from government power