

Name: _____

CJC-111 (390XE) Exam #1 Review

Across

2. The _____ shift is known as the busiest shift with lots of calls and arrests.
3. In 1829, _____ established what is now known as the world's first modern Police force.
7. _____ evidence is anything that is admissible in court and meets the rules of evidence.
10. When the Police act in a _____ manner, they go out looking for crime and patrol aggressively.
12. The _____ era of policing in the United States is remembered for the creation of hiring standards and education for the Police.
16. A _____ is the most serious crime that one can commit.
19. An example of a _____ Law Enforcement agency might be the FBI or DEA.
20. Patrol is the _____ of Law Enforcement.
21. _____ law is a judicial precedent set by judges.
22. The largest and most expensive resource in a modern Police department is the _____ division.
24. The Chief of Police is _____ to the position as Chief.
25. Indirect evidence is also known as _____.
27. _____ evidence immediately demonstrates the existence of a fact in question.
28. There are _____ basic levels of Law Enforcement in the United States.
30. There is a strong link between the patrol function and _____ control.
32. The _____ is in charge of the jail in most counties.

34. The _____ is the supervisor who works on the street most of the time.
35. The Miranda v. Arizona case states that people who are subject to police interrogation have the right to remain silent.
37. Law Enforcement in the United States has its roots based on the _____ system of Policing.
39. The _____ rule states that illegally obtained evidence cannot be used in court.
40. _____ patrol is when the police go out and target specific crimes and incidents for patrol purposes.
Down
1. The _____ was an early system of Law Enforcement through which all able bodied men were required to come and help if someone was in trouble in the town.
4. An example of a search where no warrant is needed to conduct the search could be a _____ search.
5. _____ evidence refers to tangible objects that are produced as a direct result of the commission of a crime.
6. The _____ operations in a police department show who's in charge of the field operations and day to day police work.
8. The _____ case decision gave Police Officers the right to "frisk" someone's outer clothing to check for weapons.
9. The _____ of command is the system by which you can tell who works in a police department and who is in charge.
11. _____ is needed for an officer to make an arrest or obtain a warrant.
13. A study of patrol in _____ concluded that simply adding more officers does not have a big effect on crime.

14. _____ is a guarantee that legal procedures are in place to protect people from being abused by the law.
15. The "actus reus" and "mens rea" make up the _____ of a crime.
17. The average police department is based on a _____ model.
18. The _____ style of policing uses the law and legal solutions to solve problems.
23. The _____ shift is characterized by lots of reports and traffic issues.
26. A Police Officer drives around in his _____ and waits for calls.
29. In England, the emergence of _____ is said to have fueled the creation of formal Law Enforcement.
31. The _____ amendment protects you against unreasonable searches and seizures.
33. An example of documentary evidence may be a statement made to the police by a _____.
36. Most police departments in the United States employ fewer than _____ sworn officers.
38. The largest police department in the country is the _____.