

CKVC Safety Training All Staff

Across

- 3. _____ are located in pharmacy by the refrigerator, in the front lobby between rooms 4 and 5, and in the back hallway near the exit door.
- 5. When using a portable fire extinguisher, remember the word _____. This stands for: pull the pin, aim low, squeeze handle, sweep side to side.
- 9. Never mix ANY _____ together unless instructed to do so on the label or in the directions.
- 14. SDS is short for _____.
- 18. Dressing appropriately for the job includes wearing shoes that cover the whole foot and have _____ soles.
- 19. Containers of liquid chemicals should be stored in a closed cabinet, ideally at or below _____.
- 21. The designated meeting area in the event of emergency _____ is the field across the street.
- 24. Gas sterilization using ethylene glycol can only be performed in _____ approved devices.
- 26. Because of physical danger from moving parts, never operate machinery or equipment unless all the proper _____ are in place. Report any unsafe or broken equipment to Leah or Amy.

27. The eye wash station is located in the sink near the lab area, next to the _____ station.

Down

- 1. Most minor spills of liquid chemicals can be cleaned up with _____ and placed in the trash can.
- 2. The safety director of this hospital is _____ (name). You should ask this person if you feel you need additional safety training on any aspect of your job.
- 4. If you ever find yourself in a situation where someone demands money, drugs, or other items while threatening your _____, it is best to give them what they want without resistance.
- 6. Formalin is a suspected human carcinogen. Whenever possible, you should obtain formalin in small, _____ containers so that risk is minimized.
- 7. The _____ law requires you to wear the manufacturer's safety equipment when using any product containing a hazardous chemical.
- 8. The hazardous materials plan for this practice is located in the cabinet under the _____ computer.
- 10. Because of the potential for disease transmission and chemical contamination, _____ or drinking is only allowed in the break room or conference room.

- 11. Excessive _____ and loose fitting clothing can present hazards if an animal struggles during restraint, so it is best to keep it to a minimum.
- 12. According to insurance statistics, _____ injuries account for 1 in every 5 workplace injuries to American workers.
- 13. When making solutions from concentrate, start with the correct quantity of _____, then add the concentrate.
- 15. Some injuries are caused by _____ or dirty work areas.
- 16. Every chemical, even common ones like _____ supplies have the potential to be harmful.
- 17. If you use an electrical appliance in a wet area, make sure it is properly _____, and only plugged in to a GCFI outlet.
- 20. When you are finished using a product, always put the _____ back on the bottle.
- 22. If a robber or attacker attempts to take you away, you should resist as best you can, preferably _____ the building so that other's can see what is happening and call the police.
- 23. Always keep your back straight and lift with your _____.
- 25. In the event of a _____ your first duty is to notify others.

Word Bank

- | | | | | | |
|-----------|-------------------|------------------|--------------------|---------------|-------------|
| Non-slip | safety data sheet | eye level | Outside | Jewelry | fecal |
| Chemicals | back | grounded | Guards | Cluttered | Leah |
| Fire | paper towels | self ventilating | Fire extinguishers | Right to know | lab |
| Eating | cleaning | PASS | Safety | Evacuation | Premeasured |
| Water | legs | lid | | | |