

Name: _____

Date: _____

CLASS 8 The Rise of the English East India Company

Across

3. The confrontation between the French and British is termed as _____ Wars.

6. The English East India Company was formed in 1600 with a _____ from Queen Elizabeth I granting the sole right to carry trade in the East.

8. Indian spices, silk, textile, indigo and saltpetre were very much in demand in _____.

10. The Battle of _____ of 1757 was between Nawab of Bengal– Siraj-ud- Daulah and British.

Down

1. The first European trader to discover a new sea-route to India were the _____.

2. During the medieval period, _____ traders controlled this trade through the sea-route.

4. Mughal emperor Aurangzeb granted a _____ to the British by which they were exempted from paying custom duties in Bengal.

5. The Dutch dominance collapsed with their defeat in the hands of the _____.

7. The Portuguese made it their centre of commercial and political power in India.

9. Mir Jafar was replaced by Mir _____ as the Nawab of Bengal.