

CNA

Across

1. repeating words, phrases, actions over and over (same word or phrase, lip licking)
4. This means the conditions last a long period of time, even a lifetime
8. legislation established training and evaluation standards for nursing assistants working in such facilities
9. severe confusion
11. a law that protects confidential resident/ patient medical records and other health information.

12. Resident has increased confusion and restlessness in the late afternoon, evening, or during night
13. Collecting items that belong to someone else
14. What word means "stiffness of death"

15. Living will and power of an attorney for health care are examples of _____

Down

2. Caring for the terminally ill –can be provided in any setting for people who have approximately six months or less to live

3. Focus on comfort and dignity of resident, pain relief, independence

5. This means the resident fully understands the procedure.
6. Leaving or walking off the premises without permission and failing to provide continuity of care.
7. Type of defense mechanism that includes blocking unpleasant thoughts, feelings, and memories
10. Resident's _____ include Freedom from Restraint, Abuse, Neglect, and Misappropriation of property