

Name: _____

Date: _____

COPD and Breathlessness

Across

3. A technique used to stabilise respiratory muscles to optimise breathing.

7. A common restrictive condition associated with irritation of the upper airways

9. Used to help diagnose and classify severity of COPD.

10. Which nebuliser would you advise for a patient with bronchospasm

Down

1. Hospice that provides FAB service in Coventry and Warwickshire

2. Muscles associated with increased work of breathing

4. Permanent damage and loss of elasticity of alveoli causing gas trapping.

5. A technique taught to patients - the break down tasks to make them more manageable.

6. A shape used to assist with breathing control.

8. An adjunct to assist with sputum clearance.