

Name: _____

Date: _____

COVID

Across

3. Increasing head of bed at this angle helps decreased chances of aspiration
5. Done to help rid of secretions when patients aren't able to
9. Used to decompress the stomach and prevent aspiration in intubated patients

11. Used when patients are unable to breathe on their own

12. Done to keep oral bacterial under control

Down

1. Placing patients on their side
2. Must be done prior to providing patient care
4. Mask with an attached reservoir bag

6. A noninvasive positive airway pressure device

7. When a patient is placed chest down on the bed

8. Technique used when providing endotracheal suctioning

10. Has relatively "normal" compliance rather than low compliance