

Name: _____

COVID and Kids

Across

3. A basic daily task using soap and water that has decreases illness spread.
5. One reason for missing vaccines is parents skipping well child appointments due to fear of _____.
7. Wearing these have contributed to decreased respiratory illnesses.
9. Children have lost access to _____ due to school closures.
11. Many children are behind on these life saving preventative shots.
13. Decreasing this in pediatric waiting room helps increase access to care.
14. This respiratory illness hallmarked with a barky cough had a 96.5% decrease with COVID restrictions.

16. This respiratory illness is primarily seen in infants and toddlers and has had a 92.9% decrease with COVID restrictions.

17. Shutting down these has decreased illness but caused other impacts on children.

19. Anxiety and stress can increase _____ among children.

20. Parents need to be encouraged to make these appointments so immunizations are given and preventable disease don't spike with opening up.

Down

1. This primarily winter respiratory illness with a vaccine has decreased by 99.5% with COVID restrictions.

2. Parents have decreased accessing this.

4. There is a concern for increased for this rash like illness that can be immunized against.

6. Doing this can decrease parents fears of exposure doing medical visits.

8. Another factor in decreased respiratory infections is an increase in doing this to surfaces and places.

10. There are concerns for an outbreak of this preventable distinct cough that can be deadly to infants.

12. Keeping your space from other is called _____ distancing.

15. Adolescents and young adults are having increased need for this service sometimes only accessed through the school. A pre-existing crisis that has increased.

18. Some children only have access to this basic need through school.