

CROSSWORD 51

Across

2. In which Indian city would you be if you were crossing the famous Howrah Bridge built across the river Hooghly?

9. Which European country does the Shannon International Airport serve?

12. Which creatures are immune to snake poison?

13. What is the region of origin of the very English tree, Elm?

15. In 1721 Britain's first Prime Minister took office. How many since then have been Labor Prime Ministers?

16. It was formerly known as Nyasaland. By what name is it now known?

17. Which city in India has the largest population?

18. With which city does the famous highway, the Appian Way built by the ancient Romans, connect Rome?

19. What was Jacqueline Kennedy's maiden name?

20. In '53 Winston Churchill won a Nobel Prize for:

Down

1. Folk theatre of Gujarat is called:

3. If all the US states were listed in alphabetical order, which would be last?

4. Which Indian city does the Indira Gandhi International Airport serve?

5. In which Italian City is the Bridge of Sighs?

6. What is the name of the world tree that spans heaven and hell in Norse mythology?

7. Of the four American state whose names begin with 'A', which ends in a different letter?

8. The National Fire Service College is located at:

10. Which Indonesian island would you be on if you landed at the Ngurah Rai International Airport?

11. The color of polar bear's skin is:

14. In which country would you be if you were travelling by a Bullet train?