

Name: _____

Date: _____

C r system

Across

4. Carries blood towards the heart
 5. The system that breathes in and out gases
 6. The main artery of the body supplying oxygenated blood to the circulatory system
 9. One of the four chambers of the heart and is located on the left posterior side and acts as a returning chamber for blood returning from the lungs
 11. The system that circulates blood and lymph through the body

12. any of the many tiny sacs of air in the lungs which exchanges gases
 13. The organ that pumps blood through out the body
 14. A liquid substance that is pumped through the heart and then carries nutrients throughout the body
 15. Is breathed out of the respiratory system

Down

1. Gets bigger when breathe out and gets smaller when you breathe in

2. The main organ of the respiratory system
 3. One of the 4 chambers of the heart and pumps deoxygenated blood up through the pulmonary valve and through the pulmonary artery to the lungs
 7. Carries blood away from the heart (plural)
 8. A vein carrying oxygenated blood from the lungs to the left atrium of the heart
 10. Is breathed in and supplied throughout the body