

Name: _____

Date: _____

Calendar Time and Community Project

Across

2. A discussion regarding _____ in ASL could be metaphors or simply figurative language.

6. Poems, literature, drama, comedy, and narratives are all a type of a _____.

10. Last year should be signed as _____.

11. Like English, ASL _____ has a beginning, middle, and end.

13. Construction _____ is a way to communicate the details of what was said in a conversation..

14. All too often Deaf people experience discrimination in many areas of their life. One of the most frustration is on _____ discrimination.

Down

1. A way to communicate using actions instead of ASL GLOSS while conversating

3. Moving side to side while signing to show a comparison or that more than one person is talking is _____ shifting.

4. When a person is telling a story in ASL, it is called a _____.

5. Area in which a signer continues to sign in _____.

7. As the receiver in an ASL conversation you keep your eye on the signer. But if you are the signer you will be using your _____ to add meaning and support to your signing.

8. A signed word that represents a particular group of objects of references. Handshape may be incorporated with a movement, palm orientation, and/or location to convey rich information in a predicate.

9. Yesterday should MOV toward the _____.

12. This is when an ASL conversation has a rhythm to it or a certain type of flow; maybe in poetry it is _____.

Word Bank

ConstructiveAction

shoulder

Signingspace

Narratives

Dialogue

genre

rhyme

eyegaze

narrative

idioms

Job

past

Yearlast

Classifier