

Cameras

Across

3. What are the pieces of glass or plastic called that make up the camera lens?

6. Where is the light that is captured by the camera's image sensor saved?

9. Is the camera lens important?

10. What is a lens called that is permanently attached to the camera?

12. "The quality of the lens being used will contribute greatly to the _____"...

13. What are your pictures or images actually made of?

14. What is the type of lens called that is removable from the camera?

Down

1. The light flowing into the camera lens is directed through what?

2. What part of the camera is used to focus and direct incoming light?

4. Is there only one type of camera lens?

5. Controls for exposure settings and other effects are located on what?

7. "The amount of time the light is exposed to the image sensor is determined by which _____ is being used."

8. "The amount of light that reaches the image sensor is determined by _____ of the camera lens aperture."

11. When light comes through the elements, where is it directed?