

Can you Figure out the Bradley-ism?

Across

6. Ms. Bradley tells us not to do this with our words when we sing (HINT: MOOOOOO!!).
 8. has the same abbreviation as an unfortunate bowel condition.
 10. _____-la! (HINT: what Ms. Bradley says when someone makes a mistake).
 11. goose on a lake
 14. Ms. Bradley says we resemble this dessert when we look boring and don't smile enough.
 18. we are not just another _____ choir. (Ms. Bradley says this when she talks about waking up in the morning and not wanting to be mediocre).
 19. Ms. Bradley's special name for the wandering flamingo.
 20. Darryl in the _____!
 21. Ms. Bradley's made up word for more lips.

23. both a word Ms. Bradley sings to get our attention and what she calls the bathroom.
 24. Ms. Bradley's nickname for Dr. Edwards.
 25. what Ms. Bradley makes the sopranos do when their sound lack support (HINT: involves furniture).
Down
 1. the other thing Ms. Bradley tells the sopranos to do when their sound lacks support (HINT: involves physical pain).
 2. pachoonga and _____! (Does anyone actually know the difference?)
 3. when the sopranos' singing sounds pushed, Ms. Bradley says we sound like... (HINT: involves an animal).
 4. what Ms. Bradley says when we sing too loudly.
 5. _____ as! (HINT: Ms. Bradley's way of saying "great, thanks for your help!")

7. what Ms. Bradley says when too many choristers go to the bathroom (HINT: also a place in London).
 9. oh my _____! (the polite way to say this phrase).
 12. a kind of fence post that reminds Ms. Bradley of when we don't sing a line (HINT: in the title of one of our rehearsal spaces).
 13. the onomatopoeic word Ms. Bradley uses when a chord is to be played
 15. Ms. Bradley says we're giving her this kind of illness when we sing "on-off".
 16. Ms. Bradley's inaccurate way of saying "pet peeve"
 17. what Ms. Bradley says when you're late on tour.
 22. the animal Ms. Bradley compares our short attention spans to.