

Cardiovascular Drugs

Across

4. This category of diuretic interferes with the sodium-potassium pump thus retaining potassium and excreting sodium
5. The amount of blood in the left ventricle just before contraction occurs
10. This category of medication ends in -pine
12. This term is the change in BP related to position changes
13. This is another name for Digoxin
16. This is an example of a drug belonging to the Phosphodiesterase Inhibitors

17. This is the name (abbreviation) for a heart rate greater than 150 bpm

18. In the RAAS this is a very potent vasoconstrictor

Down

1. slssssssssssss
2. This term refers to contractility
3. What is the correct terminology for a medication that decreases the heart rate
6. This is a commonly used category for 1st line against hypertension
7. This is the classification of angina that is triggered by a predictable degree of activity

8. This is an electrolyte imbalance that may be associated with thiazides

9. This is one of the three groups of thiazides according to their duration of action

11. This category of medications end in -sartan

14. The minimum half-life for digoxin

15. The category of medications in -olol (maybe lol)