

Career Vocabulary

Across

3. an increase in job status
4. an occupation requiring special training
7. a person who works for another person
9. a yearly amount of money earned in a job position
10. vacation time, insurance, sick time received with employment
12. reward offered as motivation
15. the amount of money received in exchange for work
17. talking with other people about possible job opportunities

18. people an employer can contact for information about a person

Down

1. a person who creates and manages a business
2. a document that contains information about an employee
5. a form completed by a person who wants to apply for a job
6. a person who works for a more experienced person in order to learn a trade

8. a face to face conversation between an employer and an applicant

11. a beginning level job that requires little training

13. people at the same job level that one works with

14. an hourly amount of money earn in a job position

16. a person who controls a portion of a business and employees