

Careers - Chapter 4

Across

8. accompanying someone to his or her job to observe the work environment and the skills needed to perform the job firsthand

9. a supervised learning experience in an individual's field of study

10. the use of ideas, methods, tools, and materials to get things done; the application of knowledge to solve problems and improve and extend human capabilities

Down

1. work that is done without pay

2. available material means for assistance or information

3. knowing how to operate a computer

4. skills that are useful in different work settings

5. assistance or information that comes from within a person or from other people

6. the process in which a logical series of steps used to make a decision

7. any financial extra, such as paid vacation, sick leave, health insurance, and retirement plan provided by an employer