

Name: _____

Date: _____

Castles

Across

2. This was a wooden bridge which could be raised in times of danger
4. A trench dug around the outside of the castle. When filled with water is usually known as a moat.
6. The defendable central part of a castle sitting on the Motte.
7. a large raised area which the keep sits on.
9. Wooden wall surrounding the castle's bailey.
10. This was a liquid that caught fire on contact with water

Down

1. Similar to a catapult which was used for throwing heavy stones to smash castle or city walls
3. This was designed to protect the soldiers attacking the defensive walls of a castle
5. This was used to batter, pound, punch and shake down gates, doors and walls of medieval castles
8. The open area in a castle between the keep and the curtain wall. This is where people lived.