

Causes of Limp in Children

Across

- 2. Leads to muscle weakness, rather than muscular pain
- 5. Hot, Swollen, tender joints common in children under the age of 2.
- 6. Not caused by a specific aetiological factor, causes are often multifactorial
- 8. Inflammation of the patella ligament at the tibial tuberosity
- 9. An infection caused by Staphylococcus Aureus, among others

10. Avascular Necrosis of the femoral head is as a result of which vascular disease?

11. Risk factors for this include being: Clinically Obese AND being Tall and thin

Down

- 1. Temporary non-specific inflammation
- 3. Child may experience 'gelling' in the morning or after periods of inactivity
- 4. Elevated Serum Alkaline Phosphatase
- 7. A congenital disorder leading to the failure of normal acetabulum development.