

Cellular transport crossword puzzle

Across

4. Gases use this type of transport to enter into the cell.

6. The part of a phospholipid bilayer is hydrophilic

7. The polarity of water

9. This type of passive transport is used to diffuse water into the cell.

10. Type of solution that results in a cell shrinking.

11. This type of transport requires ATP.

12. A protein is made and sent to this organelle to be packaged

13. This method of transport is used to transport charged ions into the cell.

Down

1. This type of transport does not require energy

2. The organelle that conducts protein synthesis

3. Vesicles are used to bring large molecules inside the cell.

5. This active transport is used to pushed sodium into the cell and potassium out

8. What is used to engulf a large molecule to transport into it out of a cell?