

Ceramics

Across

- 7. Art of making things out of clay
- 9. Unglazed clay, fired once at a low temperature.
- 13. Firing unglazed clay to a low temperature to harden clay
- 14. Second firing of a piece of pottery which has been coated with a glass forming material

15. Clay which has been rolled flat

Down

- 1. Clay objects constructed by hand
- 2. Glass like coating
- 3. Liquid form of clay
- 4. clay that is dry enough but still damp enough to be joined or carved without breaking
- 5. To bake in a kiln

6. Roughing up of the clay surface for joining

- 8. ridding the clay of all air pockets
- 10. Clay which is ready to be fired
- 11. Rope like pieces of clay
- 12. Enclosed container built of refractor brick heated to temperatures from 1500 to 2340 F in which ceramics are fired.