

Name: _____

Date: _____

Ch.5&6

Across

2. odd toed mammals
 7. the ability to regulate body temperature internally
 9. an internal skeleton
 12. all hoofed animals
 16. the largest mammal
 19. ____ are considered the only true carnivorous family because none of them eat plants
 20. a tigers stripes are an example of ____
 23. this scientific name is always first and capitalized
 24. tiny, one celled reproductive structures

26. comb like plates or whale bone that cross the mouth of some whales
 27. animals with four upper incisor teeth
 28. biologist who study animals
 29. mammals are the only animals with a ____ that aid in breathing

Down

1. type of fat that some marine mammals have
 3. tree dwelling
 4. animals that chew cud
 5. even toed mammals
 6. Father of Taxonomy
 8. plants WITH a vascular system

10. the ability to grab
 11. special system by which bats located their prey
 13. science of classification
 14. developed a modern definition of the word "species"
 15. gnawing animals with two upper and lower incisor teeth
 17. one toe hoofed mammals
 18. the canin family runs in groups called
 21. the largest land mammal
 22. plants WITHOUT a vascular system
 25. mammals whose young develop in a uterus are ____ mammals