

Name: _____

Date: _____

Ch.8 Foreign Trade

Across

3. These efforts from government are needed to develop international trade.

4. Imports which gives boost to development process

7. Imports made to maintain and sustain the process of industrialization

9. This account of BOP records receipts and payments from transaction on assets

13. Trade taking place outside the geographical boundaries of a country

14. This organization plays an important role in promoting trade among nations

16. It is a systematic account of the value of transactions of a country with the rest of the world

17. One of the sides of Balance of payment

18. if the price of Indian currency falls then it becomes costlier

19. One of the factors influencing balance of payment

Down

1. It is the sum total of trade in merchandise goods

2. It is the price of a foreign currency in terms of domestic currency

5. It has become most mobile in foreign trade

6. Items which dominated the total exports of a country for a long period

8. Total value and volume of merchandise imports and exports of a country

10. On this the very success and prosperity of international trade depends

11. Situation of balance of payment when credit side entries are more than debit side entries

12. This account of BOP records the credit and debit entries of goods and services

15. They are hired to guide in the matter of exchange rates