

Name: _____

Ch. 10 Election and Voting Behavior

Across

7. a process permitted in some states whereby voters may put proposed changes in the state constitution to a vote if sufficient enough signatures are obtained on petitions calling for such a referendum

9. idea that the winning candidate has a mandate from the people to carry out his or her platforms and politics

10. voters select party nominees

Down

1. the state permits people to register to vote when they apply for their driver's license.

2. contested between the nominees of the parties

3. the belief normal people can influence the government.

4. made voters put their name on the electoral roll to be allowed to vote.

5. what was below president's dignities?

6. a state level method of direct legislation that gives voters a chance to approve or disapprove proposed legislation or a proposed constitutional amendment.

8. How many Western states enable voters to propose and make legislative decisions through initiative petitions.