

Name: _____

Date: _____

Ch 11 Properties of the Hair and Scalp

Across

7. A boil, an acute localized bacterial infection of the hair follicle that produces constant pain

9. Ringworm

10. Abnormal growth of hair. Growth of terminal hair in areas normally covered in vellus.

11. gray hair

12. Fungus that is present on all skin but causes dandruff when it grows out of control

13. Variety of canities, alternating gray and pigmented hair down the strand.

Down

1. Head lice

2. Knotted hair.

3. Autoimmune disorder that affects hair follicles to be attacked by immune system. Starts taking patches of hair before progressing.

4. Brittle hair.

5. Split ends.

6. Beaded hair. Breaks easily between beads or nodes

8. Dandruff. Characterized by excessive production and accumulation of skin cells

Word Bank

Fragilitas crinium

Tinea

pediculosis capitis

trichorrhhexis nodosa

Hypertrichosis

ringed hair

Furuncle

Alopecia areata

trichoptilosis

canities

malassezia

pityriasis

Monilethrix