

Ch 12

Across

7. Average marriage in the U.S. last about _ years

10. Style that describes adults who demand closeness are less trusting and are more emotional, jealous, and possessive

11. Individuals behavioral style and characteristic way of responding emotionally

12. Divorced adults _____ within 4 years after their divorce

13. Rapport talk and report talk are 2 ways of _____

14. Also called passionate love, or Eros; romantic love has strong sexual and infatuation components and often predominates in early period of a relationship

Down

1. Companionship, intimacy/affection, support, and source of self-esteem are all functions of _____

2. Increasingly popular lifestyle

3. 3 main dimensions-passion, intimacy, and commitment

4. Style describes adults who have positive views of relationships find it easy to get close to others and are not overly concerned about their relationships

5. Style that describes adults who are hesitant about getting involved in romantic relationships and once they are in romantic relationships they tend to distance themselves from their partners

6. Also called companionate love, an individual desires to have the other person near and had deep, caring affection for the other person

8. _____ has more close friends, more self-disclosure, and exchange of mutual support

9. _____ want practical solutions to their problems rather than sympathy