

Ch 1 review

Across

1. Allows for people in businesses to make their own economic choices about how to best produce, distribute, and exchange goods and services.

3. where independent state forms a central government

7. divides power between national and regional governments.

11. The powers that make kings only answerable to God

13. the principle that all people possess a fundamental moral worth that entitles them to fair treatment

17. the executive and legislative branches are combined

20. a small group that leads over dictatorships

21. an indirect form of democracy

22. The individual rights and liberties of all people.

24. Any decision made by the government

25. conception of something in its most perfect form

26. The political rights made by a group that make up less than half the population.

27. The formal structures and institutions in which a territory and its people are ruled

Down

2. The government is headed by one person

4. The first governments formed as a result of people agreeing among themselves to submit to the authority of a state

5. Refers to the government's authority and ability to get things done

6. having a person who is elected by the people for a limited term of office

8. when citizens meet regularly in a popular assembly to discuss issues and vote for leaders

9. A system of ruling in which one person can hold unlimited power over the government

10. The process by which government makes and carries out decisions

12. the ability of people to act and think as they choose

14. a single national government

15. The supreme power to act within its territory

16. Political unit with the power to make and enforce laws

18. belief that ordinary people can aspire to rule themselves

19. A candidate wins an election by a majority.

23. The laws that rulers see as proper and correct

Word Bank

federal system

Sovereignty

Legitimacy

confederal system

ideal

Politics

Monarchy

Minority rights

State

direct democracy

Power

Free enterprise

Policy

Majority rule

equality

Social contract theory

self government

oligarchy

liberty

presidential system

Government

Divine right of kings

Dictatorship

parliamentary system

unitary system

Liberal democracy

republic