

Name: _____

Date: _____

Ch. 2-3

Across

2. Increase in size of any body part of the entire body

4. An expression (days, weeks, months) of when a child is likely to demonstrate certain development skills

6. Unusual; different from what might commonly be expected

12. The process of establishing a positive and strong emotional relationship between an infant and his or her parent; sometimes referred to as attachment

14. Average; a characteristic or quality that is common to most individuals in a defined group

15. The ability to withstand or resist difficulty

16. Changes in the body or its functions that are experienced by the affected individual

18. A condition or malfunction of a body part that interferes with optimal functioning

19. It is an indication of normal or abnormal growth and development of the brain and central nervous system

Down

1. Frequent or repeated incidences of illness

3. The process of gathering and evaluating information about an individual's state of health

5. Qualities or traits that distinguish one person from another

7. The process of identifying a disease, illness, or injury from its symptoms

8. A child's initial set of teeth

9. Commonly refers to the process of intellectual growth and change

10. A child in a good physical, mental, social, and emotional state

11. To inspect and take note of the appearance and behavior of other individuals

13. A state of personal or self identity

17. A brief note or description that contains useful and important information