

Ch. 25: CHECKING ACCOUNTS

Across

- 2. Checks that have not cleared your bank.
7. Balancing your checkbook is also called.
8. Signing the back of a check in order to deposit or cash it.
10. A card used to immediately deduct a purchase amount.
12. This is a place to record all the deposits and credits that affect your account.

- 13. What must you write in on a check?

- 14. Spending more money than that is in your account.

- 15. A check drawn on a bank's own funds and signed by an officer of the bank.

Down

- 1. A check for which a bank guarantees payment.

- 3. What is another name for automated teller machine?

- 4. A balance sheet listing deposits, withdrawals, service charges, and interest payments.

- 5. A form filled out before depositing money into a bank account.

- 6. This card is used to check the signatures on your checks.

- 9. If you open an account with another person what is the account called?

- 11. A written order instructing a bank to pay someone.

Word Bank

Cashier's Check

Ink

Deposit Slip

Endorse

Outstanding Checks

Signature Card

Certified Check

Bankstatement

Joint

Register

ATM

Reconciling

Debit Card

Check

Overdraw