

Ch. 3 Vocabulary

Across

3. one who organizes, manages, and assumes the risks of a business or enterprise
6. multifamily apartments, usually dark, crowded, and barely meeting minimum living standards
7. total control of a type of industry by one person or one company
9. an organization that is authorized by law to carry on an activity but treated as though it were a single person
10. an organization linked to a political party that often controlled local government

Down

1. process of acquiring or causing a person to acquire American traits and characteristics
2. the person in control of a political machine
4. providing money to support humanitarian or social goals
5. a decline in volume of available money or credit that results in lower prices, and, therefore, increases the buying power of money
8. hostility towards immigrants