

Ch 9 & 10 Review Sheet

Across

- 3. The most controversial of Darwin's ideas is known as
- 4. Who coined the term normalcy
- 5. In order to achieve his pro-business goals, President Harding sought to reduce what on the wealthiest Americans
- 9. The ___ gave full voting rights to women.
- 10. Brigadier general who said the United States should increase its air power
- 14. The unofficial capital of African American culture and activism in the United States in the 1920s was
- 15. Beliefs based on a literal interpretation of the Bible are called
- 17. Slang term for liquor smugglers
- 21. In the Great Migration, African Americans moved from the South to the
- 24. Writers from the Lost Generation moved to which city
- 25. This type of music blended several different musical forms from the Deep South.

- 27. Industry that helped create demand for goods in the 1920s
  - 28. A key slogan that served as a rallying cry for members of Marcus Garvey's Universal Negro Improvement Association was
  - 29. Payments designed to make up for war damage
  - 30. His books helped create the image of the flapper
  - 31. In order to afford the new items American industry was producing in the 1920s, it became more respectable than previously to depend on
- Down
- 1. Notorious Prohibition-era gangster
  - 2. Labor leader known for tough stands
  - 6. Young women in the 1920s who defied traditional ideas of proper dress and behavior
  - 7. The prosecuting attorney in the Scopes trial was
  - 8. First woman to fly across the Atlantic ocean
  - 11. African American arts movement in New York city in the 1920s

- 12. Increased rapidly because of assembly-line techniques
- 13. Group that targeted Jews, Catholics, and radicals
- 16. Science teacher who taught evolution to students, violating a state law
- 18. City where most of the automobile manufacturing was done
- 19. The Volstead act was passed to enforce which Amendment
- 20. The buildup of weapons among nations
- 22. The deportation of suspected radicals, justified by broad powers granted to the government during wartime
- 23. In the 1920s the public's devotion to movie stars was matched by Americans' idealization of those who excelled in
- 26. Which state saw sharp increases in the price of land in the 1920s due to an increasing number of people traveling for pleasure?