

Name: _____

Date: _____

Challenges in improving agricultural production

Across

3. What is made of organic substances that come from plant and animal waste?
5. The process of breeding genetically dissimilar plants is called as
6. black soil is predominantly suitable for which crop?
8. What is the water pressure present within the plant cell called?
9. What are used to control insects and pests?

Down

1. The process that uses earthworms to decompose biodegradable waste is called_____
2. Which part of the plant does not undergo transpiration?
4. what is the most essential thing for survival?
7. The undesirable plants that grow along with our crops are called?
10. Which is the most economic way of irrigation to water individual plants?