

Changing Ways of Life and Thought

Across

2. each atom has their own kind of element and can make up chemicals
 3. a movement that urged Christians to social service
 6. John Dalton developer
 10. German composer who was the first to take advantage of an orchestra and who's music conveyed universal emotion
 11. women's right to vote
 13. British naturalist who wrote the book, 'On the origins of species'
 14. reformers persuaded the government to set these up so children could get a basic education and produce better citizens

16. idea that idolized women and the home
 17. emphasized imagination, freedom, and emotion
 18. English poet who helped launch the cultural movement of romantic poetry

Down

1. a postimpressionist artist who sold few paintings during an unhappy life
 4. a campaign to limit or ban the use of alcoholic beverages
 5. campaigned for the abolition of slavery
 7. A new art form in the 1840's that was created by using a camera

8. An impressionist artist who painted without any blending
 9. art that captured the first fleeting impression of an object in the viewer's eye
 12. an artistic movement that attempted to represent the world as it was
 15. the unscientific belief that one racial group is superior to another

Word Bank

Claude Monet
 Temperance Movement
 Public Education
 Photography
 Social Gospel

Elizabeth Cady Stanton
 Romanticism
 Women's Suffrage
 Racism
 Impressionism

Realism
 Modern Atomic Theory
 William Wadsworth
 John Dalton

Charles Darwin
 Cult of Domesticity
 Vincent van Gogh
 Ludwig van Beethoven